Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Statements
Three and nine months ended April 30, 2022 and 2021
(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)
(Unaudited)

1. Reporting entity

Patriot One Technologies Inc. (the “Company”) was incorporated under the Business Corporation Act of British Columbia. Its common shares are listed under the trading symbol “PAT” on the Toronto Stock Exchange in Canada, “PTOTF” on the OTCQX in the United States, and “OPL” on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange in Germany. The Company’s wholly owned subsidiaries include Patriot One Detection Ltd. (“Patriot”), Patriot One (UK) Limited (“Patriot UK”), Patriot One Detection Technologies Inc. (“Patriot US”), EhEye Inc. (“EhEye”) and Xtract Technologies Inc. (“Xtract”). The principal business of the Company is the development and commercialization of an integrated, layered, multi-sensor platform of technologies, referred to as the “Platform”, with the aim of enhancing public health and safety.

In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared COVID-19 a global pandemic. This contagious disease outbreak, which has continued to spread, and any related adverse public health developments, has adversely affected workforces, economies and financial markets globally, potentially leading to an economic downturn. It is not possible for the Company to predict the duration or magnitude of the adverse results of the outbreak and its effects on the Company’s business or results of operations at this time.

The Company’s head office is located at 400-257 Adelaide Street West, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, M5H 1X9 and its registered and records office is located at 400-725 Granville Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V7Y 1G5.

2. Basis of preparation

(a) Statement of compliance

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements, including the comparative period, have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard (“IAS 34”), Interim Financial Reporting, as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”). Accordingly, certain disclosures normally included in annual financial statements prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) have been omitted or condensed. These condensed consolidated interim financial statements were approved for issuance by the Board of Directors on June 9, 2022.

(b) Principles of consolidation

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Patriot, Patriot UK, Patriot US, EhEye and Xtract. Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Company. Control exists when the Company has the power to directly or indirectly govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. In assessing control, potential voting rights that are currently exercisable or convertible are taken in account in the assessment of whether control exists. Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Company. They are deconsolidated from the date on which control ceases.

Patriot One Technologies Inc.

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Statements
Three and nine months ended April 30, 2022 and 2021
(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)
(Unaudited)

All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated on consolidation.

(c) Functional and presentation currency

The functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries is the Canadian dollar and these condensed consolidated interim financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars.

(d) Basis of measurement

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for financial instruments measured at fair value. In addition, these condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting, except for cash flow information.

3. Significant accounting policies

The accounting policies, estimates and judgements used in the preparation of these condensed consolidated interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto for the year ended July 31, 2021, as these condensed consolidated interim financial statements follow the same accounting policies and methods of application.

(a) Significant accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of these condensed consolidated interim financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities at the date of the condensed consolidated interim financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Estimates and assumptions are continuously evaluated and are based on management's experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. However, actual outcomes can differ from these estimates.

Significant areas requiring the use of management estimates and judgments include:

Share-based compensation

The fair value of stock options granted is measured using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. Measurement inputs include share price on the measurement date, the exercise price of the option, expected volatility, expected life of the options, expected dividends and risk-free interest rate. These estimates will impact the valuation of share-based compensation.

Patriot One Technologies Inc.

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Statements

(Unaudited)

Treatment of development costs

Costs to develop products are capitalized to the extent that the criteria for recognition as intangible assets in IAS 38 Intangible Assets are met. Those criteria require that the product is technically and economically feasible, which management assesses based on the attributes of the development project, perceived user needs, industry trends and expected future economic conditions. Management considers these factors in aggregate and applies significant judgment to determine whether the product is feasible.

Inventories

Inventories are valued at a lower of, cost and net realizable value. Cost of inventory includes the cost of purchase (purchase price, import duties, transport, handling, assembly and other costs directly attributable to the acquisition of inventories), and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Net realizable value for inventories is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale. Provisions for inventory write-down are made in profit or loss in the period for any difference between book value and net realizable value.

Impairment of Goodwill

After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. For the purpose of impairment testing, management must make critical estimates and use assumptions to project the value of each cash-generating unit. Assumptions include future sales, profit margin and an appropriate discount rate. These assumptions will impact the valuation and impairment of goodwill.

Control, joint control, or level of influence

When determining the appropriate basis of accounting for the Company's interests in affiliates, the Company makes judgments about the degree of influence that it exerts directly or through an arrangement over the investees' relevant activities.

Estimated useful lives and depreciation and amortization of property and equipment and intangible assets

Depreciation and amortization of property and equipment and intangible assets are dependent upon estimates of useful lives, which are determined through the exercise of judgment. The assessment of any impairment of these assets is dependent upon estimates of recoverable amounts that take into account factors such as economic and market conditions and the useful lives of assets.

Right of use lease assets and liabilities

The right of use assets and liabilities are measured at the present value of future lease payments discounted using the rate implicit in the lease or incremental borrowing rate for the Company

Patriot One Technologies Inc.

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Statements

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)
(Unaudited)

estimated based on comparable companies' borrowing rates if the rate implicit in the lease is not readily determined. These assumptions will impact the valuation of the right of use assets and liabilities and finance costs.

Revenue recognition

Xtract contract revenue is recognized in proportion to the stage of completion of each contract. Significant assumptions are used to determine the stage of completion and changes in these assumptions could impact the revenue recognized during the period. Revenue arising from the sale of or subscription to use the Platform is recognized as the Company fulfills its performance obligations. There are significant estimates made in determining and measuring performance obligations which could impact the timing of revenue recognition.

(b) New accounting standards issued but not yet in effect

Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets (Amendments to IAS 37)

The IASB has published Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets (Amendments to IAS 37) which clarified the definition of the "cost of fulfilling" a contract. The amendments:

- (i) Clarify that the "cost of fulfilling" a contract comprises the "costs that relate directly to the contract";
- (ii) Clarify that the costs that relate directly to a contract can either be incremental costs of fulfilling that contract or an allocation of other costs that relate directly to fulfilling contracts.

This amendment is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2022. Earlier application is permitted. The Company does not expect the adoption of this new amendment to have a significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Classification of liabilities as current or non-current (Amendments to IAS 1)

The IASB has published Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-Current (Amendments to IAS 1) which clarified the guidance on whether a liability should be classified as either current or non-current. The amendments:

- (i) Clarify that the classification of liabilities as current or non-current should only be based on rights that are in place "at the end of the reporting period";
- (ii) Clarify that classification is unaffected by expectations about whether an entity will exercise its right to defer settlement of a liability; and
- (iii) Make clear that settlement includes transfers to the counterparty of cash, equity instruments, other assets or services that result in extinguishment of the liability.

This amendment is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023. Earlier application is permitted. The Company does not expect the adoption of this new amendment to have a significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

4. Receivables

Receivables are comprised of the following:

	April 30, 2022	July 31, 2021
Trade receivables (Note 10)	$ 500,053	$ 236,720
ITB funding receivable (Note 16)	1,000,000	1,000,000
Taxes receivable	177,055	317,272
Other receivables	194,164	1,703,419
	$ 1,871,272	$ 3,257,411

Other receivables are mainly comprised of government subsidies. As at April 30, 2022, the Company has not taken a provision for uncollectible accounts (July 31, 2021 - $nil).

5. Inventory

The Company's inventory consists primarily of hardware components that will be used in its safety and security product offerings:

	April 30, 2022	July 31, 2021
Components and work-in-progress	$ 370,262	$ 142,499
Finished goods	1,363,389	1,315,623
	$ 1,733,651	$ 1,458,122

During the nine months ended April 30, 2022, the Company recorded total inventory sold of $206,748 (2021 - $28,054) as hardware expense. The Company reclassified inventory in the amount of $48,428 (2021 - $nil) and $48,059 (2021 - $nil) to office equipment and subscription assets respectively under property and equipment (Note 7). The Company recognized a loss on inventory write-down of $168,574 for the nine months ended April 30, 2022 (2021 - $nil) related to obsolete inventory. The write-down is presented on the statement of loss and comprehensive loss under loss on inventory write-down.

6. Investment in Sotech Secure, LLC

As at April 30, 2022 and July 31, 2021, the Company owned a 49% interest in Sotech Secure, LLC, a Delaware Limited Liability Company with NanoBio Detection Systems LLC owning the remaining 51% interest.

During the year ended July 31, 2021, management considered several factors including legal developments and concluded that Company is unlikely to recoup its investment in Sotech. Accordingly, the Company wrote off the investment balance in Sotech down to its estimated fair value of $nil as at July 31, 2021. Sotech is still valued as $nil as at April 30, 2022. Despite the write-down, management will continue to take every financially prudent measure to recover the Company's investment in Sotech.

Quasar - Licensed distribution rights

In June 2019, the Company entered into a licensing agreement with Quasar Federal Systems, Inc. ("Quasar") receiving a perpetual, worldwide, exclusive, fully paid-up, transferable and irrevocable license (with a right of sublicense) to use Quasar's intellectual property in exchange for an aggregate cash consideration of $6,574,000 (US$5,000,000). The Quasar license includes access to patented sensor technology and patent-pending magnetic detection and security screening technology. The Company also has the right to engage Quasar's development team to assist with future modifications to the technology, as well as manufacturing and implementation engineering. The license was recognized as an intangible asset and is amortized over its estimated useful life of ten years. The remaining useful life of the Quasar license is approximately seven years.

EhEye - Intellectual property

In connection with the acquisition of EhEye during the year ended July 30, 2019, the Company has determined the fair value of the intellectual property acquired in connection with the acquisition of EhEye to be $1,250,000. As at November 1, 2019, the Company determined that this technology was ready for commercial use and began amortizing the acquired intellectual property over the technology's estimated useful life of ten years. The remaining useful life of this intangible asset is approximately seven years.

Xtract - Government contracts

The Company determined the fair value of the government contracts acquired in connection with the acquisition of Xtract to be $355,875. The Company has fully amortized the acquired contracts.

EcoMine / Gemina Labs

The Company entered into an agreement with EcoMine Technologies Inc. (“EcoMine”) during the year ended July 31, 2020, whereby the Company funded $175,000 towards specified research and development in exchange for the exclusive option to license the intellectual property developed ($100,000 and $75,000 during the years ended July 31, 2020 and 2021, respectively). During the year ended July 31, 2021, the Company converted this exclusive license into equity in EcoScreen Solutions Inc. (“EcoScreen”), operating as Gemina Labs, a business formed to further develop and commercialize this technology which was formerly a wholly owned subsidiary of EcoMine. The Company received common shares of Gemina Labs which is now being accounted for as an investment recorded at a fair value of $379,167 as at April 30, 2022.

Internally developed intellectual property

In fiscal 2019 and 2020, the Company determined that $235,000 of expenditures directly attributable to the development of the Platform met the criteria for capitalization. As at November 1, 2019, the Company determined that this technology was ready for commercial use and began amortizing the capitalized development costs over the technology’s estimated useful life of ten years. The remaining useful life of this intangible asset is approximately eight years.

9. Right of use assets and lease liabilities

The Company has recorded right of use assets and lease liabilities in its statement of financial position related to four properties for which the Company has entered into office lease agreements that have an initial term of one year or more. These leases have been classified as a single class of right of use assets under office leases.

The carrying amounts of the Company's right-of-use assets, liabilities and the movements for the year ended July 31, 2021 and the nine months ended April 30, 2022, are as follows:

14. Financial instruments and risk management

As at April 30, 2022, the Company's financial instruments comprise of cash, receivables, investment in Gemina Laboratories Ltd. ("Gemina Labs"), accounts payable and accrued liabilities. The carrying values of receivables, accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of the instruments. The Company's other financial instruments, cash and investment in Gemina Labs are carried at fair value. Fair values of financial instruments are classified in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used to determine fair values. The levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

- Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices); and
- Level 3 – Inputs that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

The Company has segregated all financial assets that are measured at fair value into the most appropriate level within the fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used to determine the fair value at the measurement date.

Risks to the Company's financial instruments and their potential impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below:

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company ensures there is sufficient capital to meet short-term business requirements, after taking into account cash flows from operations and the Company's holdings of cash. The Company believes that these sources are sufficient to cover the likely short-term cash requirements over the next twelve months, but that further funding or net income from operating activities will be required to meet long-term requirements. As at April 30, 2022, the Company had cash of $10,610,731 (July 31, 2021 - $9,652,493) to settle current liabilities of $2,935,431 (July 31, 2021 - $1,882,803). Most of the Company's financial liabilities have contractual maturities of 30 days or less and are subject to normal trade terms.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of an unexpected loss if a customer or third party to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its cash and receivables. The Company limits exposure to credit risk by maintaining its cash with large financial institutions. The Company does not have cash that is invested in asset-backed commercial paper. Most of the Company's receivables primarily consist of sales tax refundable from the Canada Revenue Agency, trade receivable and grant funding from the Canadian Government and accounts receivable under the Canadian Industrial and Technological Benefits ("ITB") program and is not subject to significant credit risk.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates and equity prices.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk arises from changes in market rates of interest that could adversely affect the Company. The Company currently has no interest-bearing financial instruments other than cash, so its exposure to interest rate risk is insignificant.

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that is related to the fluctuation of foreign exchange rates. Most of the Company's assets and liabilities are denominated in Canadian dollars. As at April 30, 2022, the Company did not have any material monetary assets or liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and consequently is not exposed to significant foreign currency risk.

Price risk

The Company is exposed to price risk with respect to equity prices. Equity price risk is defined as the potential adverse impact on the Company's earnings due to movements in individual equity prices or general movements in the level of the stock market. The Company closely monitors individual equity movements and the stock market to determine the appropriate course of action to be taken by the Company. The Company believes the effects of any price risk to be immaterial.

15. Grant funding

During the nine months ended April 30, 2022, and 2021, the Company received non-dilutive funding from Raytheon, Supercluster, and COVID-19 relief programs from the Canadian Government. The following table summarizes the total funding received by the Company:

	Nine months ended April 30,
	2022	2021
Raytheon ITB program (Note 16)	$ 2,553,000	$ 478,700
Supercluster	410,530	1,940,453
COVID-19 relief programs	317,240	2,638,248
Total non-dilutive grants	$ 3,280,770	$ 5,057,401

Grant funding is net against related expenses in the statements of loss and comprehensive loss. When expenses are normalized by removing the non-dilutive funding, the loss and comprehensive loss for the nine months ended April 30, 2022, would have been $11,860,089 (2021 - $14,727,506).

16. Raytheon funding

On October 31, 2021, the Company entered into an agreement with Raytheon Intelligence and Space (“RIS”) wherein RIS would fund the Company approximately $2,553,000 (US$2,000,000) in non-dilutive cash financing for the development of the Company’s AI-driven technologies (the “Project”). The Project has been approved as a qualifying project under the Government of Canada’s ITB program. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the Company is eligible to claim the funding for qualifying research and development expenditures incurred during the period from December 1, 2020 through June 30, 2022. As at April 30, 2022, the Company has received $2,553,000 related to qualifying expenditures from December 1, 2020 through April 30, 2022. The Company has recorded gross research and development costs of $5,529,813, which is presented net of the $2,553,000 Raytheon funding and other non-dilutive fundings for the nine months ended April 30, 2022.

In December 2018, Raytheon Canada Ltd. agreed to provide the Company with $3,000,000 in non-dilutive cash financing for research and development through the ITB program. The Company has received $2,000,000 in funding to date and is eligible to receive an additional $1,000,000 based on research and development performed in the calendar year ended December 31, 2020. As at April 30, 2022, the Company has accrued a receivable of $1,000,000 related to qualifying expenditures from January 1, 2020 through December 31, 2020 (Note 4).

17. Segmented information

Operating segments

The Company currently has two distinct operating segments, the Platform and Xtract. The Platform develops and commercializes a platform of multi-sensor threat detection technologies. Xtract develops and commercializes artificial intelligence solutions for customers.

The accounting policies of the operating segments are the same as those described in the summary of significant accounting policies (Note 3). The Company currently has no intersegment sales. Xtract labor costs incurred in the development of Platform technologies are allocated to the Platform business unit at cost.

Segmented reporting information is presented for both Company's distinct operating units. The following tables summarize the operations and current financial position of each segment for the nine months ended April 30, 2022 and 2021.
